This includes but is not limited to alterations to the business or the premises.

- (b) we would not have entered into this policy on any terms had you made a fair presentation of the risk.

Should we avoid this policy we:

- (c) may deduct from any return of premium due to you any monies already paid in respect of claims falling within the period for which the policy is treated as not having existed or require you to repay such claims.

Provided that any failure to make a fair presentation of the risk is not deliberate or reckless, if we would have entered into or renewed this policy, or agreed to make changes to your cover on different terms had you made a fair presentation of the risk, we may:

- (a) proportionately reduce the amount payable in respect of a claim
- (b) treat the policy as if it contained such different terms (other than relating to the premium) that we would have applied to the policy had you made a fair presentation of the risk.

Any reduction in claims payments or application of different terms will take effect from the date on which the policy started, was renewed or when changes were made to your cover, depending on when you failed to make a fair presentation of the risk.

Where we elect to proportionately reduce the amount payable in respect of a claim we will pay a percentage of the claim, the percentage being calculated by comparing the premium which you actually paid with the premium which we would have charged had you made a fair presentation of the risk. For example, if the premium which you actually paid is 70% of the premium we would have charged, we will only pay 70% of any claim.

Where this policy provides benefits to individuals who would, if they had taken out similar insurance in their own name, have done so for purposes wholly or mainly unconnected with their trade, business or profession, we will not rely on this condition if the failure to make a fair presentation of the risk concerns only facts or information which relate to that particular individual, unless the individual (or you on their behalf) makes a careless misrepresentation, in which case we may rely on this condition as against that particular individual as if a separate insurance contract had been issued to them leaving the remainder of the policy unaffected.
